Stevenson likely running mate, says Mori

Senator Adlai Stevenson of Illinois is rumored to be the favorite in the contest to become Jimmy Carter's running mate, Assemblyman Floyd Mori said yesterday.

In a phone call to The Times, Mori said that part of the California delegation was booming Los Angeles Mayor Tom Bradley for vice - president after a moving speech for Bradley by civil rights leader Jesse Jackson.

Mori, a delegate pledged to the presidential candidacy of Governor Jerry Brown, is one of 400 delegates and alternates from California. Most are pledged to Brown, though there are a scattering of Carter delegates.

Mori was unaware of press reports that the New Democratic Coalition, comprised of remnants of the Gene McCarthy, Robert Kennedy and George McGovern supporters in 1968 and 1972, launched a drive to get the vice - presidential nomination for Berkeley Congressman Ron Dellums.

Mori personally supports Idaho Senator Frank Church for the vice - presidential nomination, but the talk of the party so far is that Stevenson, a moderate - liberal from a populous northern state, will get the nod because he would be a better balance to Carter.

"I would tend to lean toward Church, who is very experienced, especially in foreign affairs. But Stevenson might have the upper hand now. That's the name which pops up most," said Mori.

Floyd Mori

Mori confirmed press reports that Brown will have his name placed in nomination for the Presidency, despite Carter's sew - up of delegate votes. It's a matter of principle for Brown because several states sent delegations in his support, said Mori.

Mori was impressed with the youth of the California delegation. He said it is a diverse delegation and he feels that the more democratic procedures now used in delegate selection has assured this.

Overall the minority representation on the delegation is not bad, said Mori, but he would like to see more Asian - American representation than the four delegates and alternates out of the 400 total.

Mori caucaused with other Asian - Americans Sunday night and they tried to submit a resolution calling on President Ford to restore citizenship to Iva D'Aquino, who was one of the women who broadcast as Tokyo Rose during World War II. The proposal was not admitted to the resolutions committee because it failed to meet certain technical requirements, said Mori.

Asked if he intended to get try to get on network television to publicize the gesture for D'Aquino, Mori replied that he and the rest of the caucus have given that idea some thought, but have not acted on it.

Mori succeeded in getting a bill passed by the California Legislature calling on Ford to restore D'Aquino's citizenship. Ford has not commented on the California Legislature's resolution, said Mori. He thinks Ford won't do anything about it until after the Republican National Convention, fearing that Ronald Reagan might use it against him at the convention.

The party platform being drafted in New York will have "nothing drastic, no resolutions of any controversial type," said Mori. "It will be a very broad, general type of platform."

Vote on the platform is expected tonight. Balloting for the Presidential nominee will occur tomorrow night and on Thursday night the convention will pick a vice - presidential candidate.

Sunol home project wins acceptance

Alameda County Bureau

HAYWARD — Planning commissioners yesterday upheld a board of supervisors' ruling and granted D. J. O'Laughlin's request to break out a half-acre plot in Sunol and approve it for a residential development.

O'Laughlin had asked the commission for permission to separate the half-acre from a larger, "u-shaped" parcel that bends around to Main Street.

The site already has a septic tank, a holdover from a former residence on the property, and O'Laughlin wants to use it for a new building.

A gas station, manufacturing building and three clustered residential houses sit on the remainder of the plot.

In another action, the commission approved Livermorean Chester Anderson's application for a zoning change that allows residential development of 52 agricultural acres near Livermore.

Anderson's plans call for 900 to 1,200 condominiums and detached single family homes on Portola Avenue across from North P Street.

In granting Anderson's request, commissioners debated only the availability of utilities and municipal services — police and fire protection — before okaying the zoning change.

The City of Livermore, which wants to annex the land, favored the application.

No parochial school for St. Augustine's

PLEASANTON — Following a year's research into the possibility of a parochial school at St. Augustine's Catholic Church in Pleasanton, the Most Reverend Floyd L. Begin, Bishop of Oakland announced he "has decided not to open a school" at this time.

In a letter printed in the Sunday bulletin of St. Augustine's Church which is distributed at all Masses, Bishop Begin went on to state: "Such a school would not provide for all of the children; tuition would be prohibitive; no religious faculty is available.

I ask you to concentrate on a very effective catechism program, enlisting the aid of educated and dedicated lay teachers and, above all, enlisting the cooperation of parents."

Approximately a year ago, Father Cloutier, Pastor of St. Augustine's Church appointed a committee to conduct a study and make a fact finding report to determine the advantage of a parochial school at St. Augustine's after being approached by interested parents. A questionnaire was mailed to parishioners to get their opinions on a school at St. Augustine's. Of the 1930 questionnaires mailed out, only 762 were returned with a "positive" response, according to Father Cloutier. This represented 40 per cent of the entire parish.

A report showing a "school on paper" was compiled by the committee and presented to Father Cloutier.

Bishop Begin invited Father Cloutier to discuss the subject of an elementary school at St. Augustine's. Father Cloutier took the "feasibility study" with him to the meeting.

Following this meeting, Bishop Begin was led to include the following statement in his letter to the parishioners: "Having considered the proposed elementary school at St. Augustine's, Pleasanton, in the light of the correspondence I have received, the committee report and the opinions of many pastors, I have decided not to open a school at your parish, at least not at this time."

Joe Morgan who headed up the finance committee of this study group, felt "disappointed that the study could not have been brought through its finalization with a parish meeting." He was hoping for a parish meeting in September.

Another spokesman for the study felt, "all committee members, regardless of how they felt about having the school, did an outstanding job in researching. She felt it was a very "exhaustive and comprehensive report." She also felt a "disappointment" as she strongly feels "there is a need in the valley for this type of school."

Several of the families deeply involved with the promotion of parochial school indicated if it did not meet with the parishioners approval, they would work toward getting a valley wide catholic school going, but not attached to any particular catholic church. At this time, these parents feel they are "in limbo" and have no future plans.

First Street gas station won't grow

PLEASANTON — Doug Safreno's request to expand a Shell gas station to an adjacent lot on First Street was denied unanimously by the city council last night.

Not all the fireworks were in the debate between Safreno and his neighbors, though, as a small fire started in the flourescent lighting high above the press table in the city council chambers.

The fire was totally contained in the lighting unit and basically amounted to some low level sparks, though there was much sudden concern throughout the meeting hall because of the flashing fire, a little smoke and strong odor.

On the gas station issue, several property owners and residents near the station said the expansion would wall-off their view and make their homes nosier.

Safreno's architect, Jack Bras, said the city had a double standard, since it is considering a future commercial strip on the west side of First Street on property now owned by Southern Pacific, while refusing to consider it on the east side.

Safreno's vacant lot could contain multiples, but sewer connections won't be available for at least five years, said Bras.

Before making the motion against expanding the station, councilwoman Joyce LeClaire noted that people on First Street are restoring old homes there in an effort to assert its residential desirability.

Expanding the station would work against that goal, she said.

Councilman William Herlihy said that expansion of the station would create a falling domino effect on First Street affecting the value of other properties. He observed that the vacant lot at the corner of Kottinger Avenue and First Street could be seen as a perfect one for a gas station if the Shell station were made any larger.

Councilmembers Ken Mercer and Bob Philcox said that the neighbors are entitled to a buffer from the commercial development.

Mercer said the Vineyard Avenue and First Street intersection is "one of the most dangerous in the city and very heavily travelled." First Street should remain "as residential as possbible," said Mercer.

Councilman Frank Brandes said it was not an easy decision for him to vote against the station expansion.

He felt the council should do all it can to help local merchants expand their businesses, but thought the city owed a greater debt to the residences nearby.

There's no bread to buy the bacon

LIVERMORE — The ladies staggered into the Shattucks' house with $75 worth of groceries — cornflakes and kidney beans and flour and the other staples it takes to feed a family of 18.

Ruth Shattuck beamed as she poured coffee for the visitors and supervised teen-agers putting the food on shelves.

It was one less grocery order her husband, Butch, would have to buy out of his own paycheck.

"How long will it last you, Ruth?"

"Oh — four days, I hope."

The Livermore Jaycee Wives will be spending another $75 on groceries for the Buenas Vidas Youth Ranch, thanks to their "Art in the Vineyard" fundraiser last month. By selling sandwiches and drinks, the club netted $150 for the ranch.

Which saves Buenas Vidas resident Laura Wisely a couple of shopping trips into town, as well as easing Butch's wallet a bit.

"Most of his salary goes for food," Ruth admits. Although the ranch is providing a badly needed county service by sheltering teen - agers who need to leave home and have nowhere to stay, Buenas Vidas still has no funding to pay for their staggering grocery bill.

Nor is there money to cover dental and medical bills for the often neglected youths who live there. "A lot of them would be entitled to have the work done free by the county," Ruth sighs, "but their parents won't even sign the papers"

Luckily, this summer all the Buenas Vidas residents have gotten into a federal work program. The small income will help them buy their own back - to - school clothes and perhaps pay for the dentist.

Although Butch and Ruth Shattuck are virtually supporting a string of teen - agers (they live in abandoned sanitarium buildings on Arroyo Road), they're not allowed to declare them as income tax deductions unless the youths have lived with them for the calendar year.

It's a transient group; "In all the years we've been doing this, we've only had one kid who stayed long enough to declare a deduction," Ruth reports — more with a laugh than a groan.

She's long since decided that that's how life is, when you feel that helping people is more important than raising your own kids in a tract house on the nice side of town.

The Shattucks got into the crash - pad business several years ago when their rented home on Greenville Road began to be a place where teenagers knew they could find a temporary home.

There was plenty to do on the small ranch, raising animals and repairing buildings. It was dubbed "His Place."

Three years ago, a group of local youth workers and interested citizens banded together to help the Shattucks relocate and perhaps get some funding for their good work.

It took some persuasion for the Board of Supervisors to let the Shattucks locate in some of the county - owned sanitarium buildings, built in the twenties and abandoned in the fifties.

At this point, the weeds have been cleared, a few buildings have been rehabilitated with volunteer labor and materials, and the nurses' quarters is about to be turned into a residence hall for six youths and a counselor.

Rummage sales and donations from groups and individuals provide some income that pays the electric bill and buys some nails here or a box of Band - Aids there.

But what really keeps the Shattucks going are people like the retired man who spends solitary hours plastering the crumbling buildings. The plumber who came out at midnight in the rain and labored until 5 a.m. to unplug the septic tank. The friendly mother of four who finds hours each day to work at the ranch. And all the other local people who donate time and labor to keep the ranch going.

But the real stars are the teen - agers themselves, who take care of the animals, run a petting zoo (free to school groups), pull the weeds and sweep the walks and wash the clothes.

And paint everything green. "If it stands still paint it!" is their motto as they go through 600 cans of paint, all green, that were donated to the ranch recently.

It's the hard work that makes the kids a vital part of the ranch.

In their valley of orchards and oaks, surrounded by steep -sided gold hills, they can shape their own home out of old lumber and donated nails and second - best wallboard.

Groundbreaking

Veterans Administration officials gathered yesterday at groundbreaking ceremonies for the new $1.7 million administration and research building to be erected in Livermore. The mission - style structure will take the place of a large building and two wings that were built in 1924 and demolished recently because they failed earthquake safety standards.

The main building now standing on the Arroyo Road hilltop was built in 1949.The new 18,500 square foot building is due to be completed in December, 1977. Research will occupy the entire first floor; administration offices will be moved out of the trailers now located on the hospital's front lawn, into the second floor of the new building. Hearing due on budget

LIVERMORE — Directors of the Livermore Area Recreation and Park District (LARPD) will take public comments on a proposed $1.8 million 1976-77 budget when they meet Wednesday night.

The proposed budget incorporates a tax rate of 65.8 cents per $100 assessed valuation, an increase of 1.4 cents over the current tax rate.

The proposed tax rate reflects an anticipated 10 per cent increase in the assessed valuation to be set by Alameda County in August.

The final tax rate could vary depending on the actual increase in assessed valuation.

The 65.8 cents tax rate is divided into a regular tax rateiof 64.15 cents plus a special tax rate of 3.4 cents for long-term indebtedness.

A special tax rate also was levied last year, but the 1976-77 fiscal year is expected to be the last time the special tax rate will be levied.

The total preliminary budget was first set at $1,824,087 (the current budget is $1,740,216). But the directors last month opted to increase the Contingency Account from about $75,000 to $100,000, thereby increasing the total preliminary budget for fiscal year 1976-77 to $1,848,622.

The LARPD tax dollar represents 38.2 per cent for park maintenance and operation, 26.4 per cent recreation programs, 18.3 per cent planning and development, 17.1 per cent administration.

The public is permitted to comment on the proposed budget at a meeting of the LARPD directors, Wednesday at 7:30 p.m., 71 Trevarno Rd., Livermore.

The directors are expected to adopt the budget after the public hearing closes.

The directors will also consider negotiations to assume jurisdiction of the Veterans Memorial Building in Livermore.

LARPD has been interested in use of the building for recreational programs, but the fee schedule is currently so high that programs could not be offered at reasonable cost to the community.

LARPD could assume jurisdiction of the building, under an arrangement similar to the one Pleasanton has for use of the Veterans Memorial Building in Pleasanton.

The reservation and supervision of the building could be accomplished through the use of the existing Recreation Division public use reservation system so as not to interfere with its use by veterans associations.

Preliminary estimates show that the net cost to LARPD would be approximately $14,000 to $15,000 per year.

Brother and sister drown despite their father's effort

LIVERMORE — A four-year-old boy and his three-year-old sister drowned in a backyard swimming pool on Malibu Court Saturday night despite rescue efforts by the youths' father, neighbors and police.

Craig Densberger, 4, and his sister, Jennnifer, 3, were pronounced dead at Valley Memorial Hospital following the accident.

According to reports, the two children were sitting on the edge of a pool at 447 Malibu Court about 8 p.m. Their father, John Densberger, 27, of 5416 Delia Way, warned both youths not to go in the water, police reported.

Densberger went to check on the youths, as he had done a few minutes earlier, when a just-arriving neighbor began yelling for help.

Running towards the pool, Densberger saw his two children on the bottom of the pool. He immediately jumped in and pulled them out, and he and off-duty sheriff's deputy Sgt. James Patterson began applying artificial respiration to young Craig.

Livermore police officer Kenneth Gardner and reserve officer Terry Platt appeared and worked on three-year-old Jennifer until an ambulance arrived and took both children to Valley Memorial Hospital.

Craig was pronounced dead at about 9 p.m. Jennifer was placed on artficial life support systems and kept breathing for approximately 15 hours until succumbing to apparent cardiac arrest the next day.

Funeral arrangements are pending.

Polio vaccine available

Almost one in 10 children in Contra Costa County is running the risk of contracting deadly polio.

Contra Costa County health officials are afraid parents think the crippling disease was eradicated, like smallpox, after a vaccine was discovered in the fifties.

"This is a mistake. Polio still, unnecessarily, claims too many young lives each year in the United States," says Dr. John Wood of the county health department.

A pleasant - tasting liquid vaccine is fed to children in a series of four or five doses before a child reaches school age.

A free brochure explaining which immunizations children should receive is available from the health department at 372-2525.

Women crash

PARKERSBURG, W.Va. (AP) — Two pilots battling a head wind in the women's cross-country Powder Puff Derby were seriously injured Monday when their plane ran out of gas and crashed in a residential area.

The pilots, Mrs. Kay Huffman and Mrs. Lynn Greer, both of Riverside, Calif., were in serious but stable condition at Camden Clark Memorial Hospital here with multiple fractures and lacerations.

Officials here said the pilot apparently tried to land on a golf driving range but crashed in a residential area about 20 miles south of the airport where they had planned to refuel.

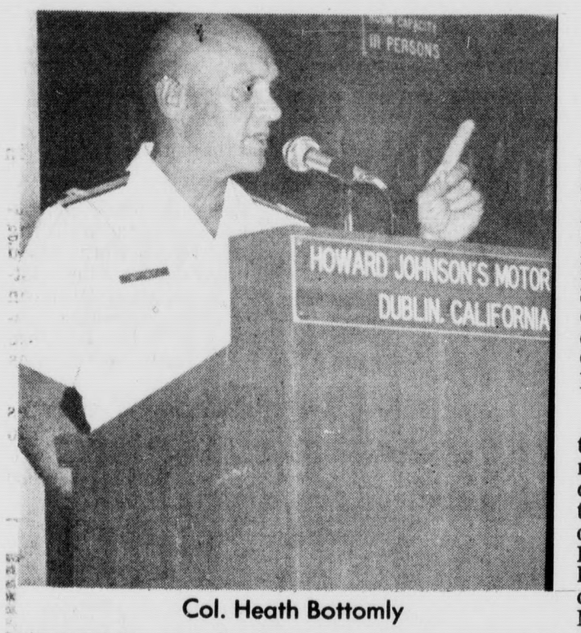
First prayer breakfast a spellbinder



Col. Heath Bottomly

With dramatic gestures, the piercing blue eyes and clean shaven virility of a Yul Brenner, the clear vibrant voice of Colonel Heath Bottomly filled the halls of Howard Johnson's, Saturday morning as he delivered the key-note address for the Exchange Club's first annual Prayer Breakfast.

Prominant leaders from throughout the valley mixed with Exchangeites, clergy and others who filled the Monterey Room well over capacity. Col. Heath Bottomly, U.S. Air Force, Hon Ret., is now an associate staff member of the Military Ministry of Campus Crusade for Christ.

He described himself himself as having been raised with the "Fountainhead" philosophy of dynamic humanism, when you only believe in your own talents and abilities, and you are the center of your own universe and responsible only for yourself. Christianity and the Bible were non-existant in his home; only discipline independence and self - reliance were important.

To emphasise this characteristic in his make-up, he said that, as a young West Point graduate and P-38 pilot during World War II, he was fully convinced that he, and he alone, had won that war.

His many accomplishments during combat only served to bolster his already over - confident ego. With over 5000 flying hours, his military honors include winning the Legion of Merit, America's highest award for meritorious service four times; the Air Medal seventeen times, the Distinguished Flying Cross twice; the Joint Services Commendation Medal and the Outstanding Unit Award twice, and the Presidential Unit Citiation three times.

It wasn't until a harrowing experience in Vietnam, the telling of which left his audience spellbound, that he finally came to the startling realization that "just maybe" he even might need someone else during a moment of utter desperation.

It was then Col. Bottomly says he experienced an amazing phenomenom. The image of his oldest son, who was then attending Purdue University in Indiana, appeared so clearly to him, as he sat in the gloomy silence of his room in Vietman, that he was compelled to phone him

"With the simple, clear logic of Jesus Christ," said Col. Bottomly, "my son led me through this dark moment."

Separated as they were, they prayed together, and Col. Bottomly described moment, saying, "the warm winds of God blew through me and chucked out 50 years of junk."

After opening the door of his life and inviting Jesus to come in, Col. Bottomly's life changed dramatically.

His wife and five children, who had been separated and scattered throughout the United States for over four years, were reunited once again. And according to Col. Bottomly, "My children learned for the first time what it meant to live the 'quality' life of a Christian." He dramatically described it as "the flash-fire storm of Jesus Christ sweeping through our family."

He passionately told the audience that if they had known his family before "conversion," they would have to describe it as a "miracle." But, he added, "When you work with the Lord, day - by - day, you learn to expect miracles, day - by - day."

Admitting to daily mistakes and describing himself as a "six-year-old baby" — counting his "re-birth in Christ" — he says of Jesus Christ, "He knows how to pick me up, dust me off, swat me on the fanny, and say, 'Go and sin no more.'"

Bottomly's closing remarks were dedicated to his concern over the United States and making it truly "one nation under God." He believes the turmoils of Watergate, immoral legislators and the energy crises, are all God's way of trying to get our attention.

Pleading for those listening to pray daily, Col. Bottomly concluded with another quote from the Bible, "Seek my face and pray, and I'll hear them and heal their land."

Continue crime fight–LeClaire

Looking back on nine months the Alameda Regional Criminal Justice Planning Board, Pleasanton Vice - mayor Joyce LeClaire is pleased with the service it has performed for the valley.

LeClaire resigned a couple of months ago because she acquired a job in the administrative offices of State Senator Nicolas Petris in Fremont.

The planning board is the official agency which reviews program proposals by community groups and local governments seeking federal and state crime - fighting funds.

Two prominent programs screened by the committee have been the Horizons youth counseling program and the Strategic Team Enforcement Program, both programs shared by Livermore and Pleasanton with a majority of the funds coming from the federal government.

"We get many positive reports on Horizons from people who have been helped," said LeClaire. She hopes Horizons and STEP continues beyond this, the third year, of subsidized funding.

The federal and state governments won't fund any program beyond three years, seeing their own contribution as "seed money" to encourage local government to continue the programs.

LeClaire isn't sure where Pleasanton would come up with the money to fund a continuation from the programs, but it should be sought, she said, mentioning the county as a possibility.

The STEP program has been an important ingredient in cutting the burglary rate in Livermore, according to Police Sergeant Don Lee, who is the Crime Prevention Director in charge of coordinating the three member crime prevention team.

"We had a 4 per cent reduction in the number of burglaries last year and it looks like another reduction this year," said Lee.

Just as Horizons is a diversion program by educating youths about drugs and doing counseling for first - time drug offenders, the STEP program diverts people from crime, too, said Lee. He doesn't have any statistics, but it's his feeling that the higher degree of burglary prevention encouraged by STEP's educational programs in the community has made it so tough for some burglars, that they refrain from breaking into houses.

The STEP program also has led to the valley's first anti - burglary homebuilding ordinance. Livermore adopted the ordinance June 24. It calls for tougher door locks, doors and window sashes, so that burglars will have a harder time trying to break in. One builder, Morrison Homes in Pleasanton, is building its newest tract according to the ordinance under advice from the STEP team.

LeClaire noted that Governor Jerry Brown attacked the criminal justice board's approach to such crime diversion. Do these programs really divert people from crime, the governor asked in his Socaratic manner. He wanted to cut out all funding and learn the answer.

LeClaire said she feels programs like Horizon and STEP indeed reduce crime, or at least hold the line in an era when crime statistics are increasing in many geographical areas. She doesn't think it is sensible or humane to stop the funding just to find out whether the programs are working.

Travelling star show at Chabot

Have you seen the Frog Sisters on the face of the moon?

Do you know why buzzards are bald? Did you know we have four seasons because four brothers, each with a different personality, control the sun and the wind?

Never again will you regard the night sky in the same way, after learning from "The People"— a dazzling and tender retelling of ancient Native American legends about the sky.

"The People" is a free show at the Chabot College planetarium, 8:30 p.m. Fridays and 3 p.m. Saturdays through Aug 28.

The hour - long show is a traveling production by the Hansen Planetarium of Salt Lake City, Utah, funded by a grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities as a Bicentennial gift to the nation.

In addition, Chabot also offers a 45 - minute show, "Stars of the Summer Sky," preceding "The People." "Stars" is offered at 7:30 p.m. Fridays and 2 p.m. Saturdays.

Written by student technician Carol Szelazek, "Stars" takes visitors on a guided tour of the night sky, showing them how to identify the bright stars and constellations visible to the unaided eye.

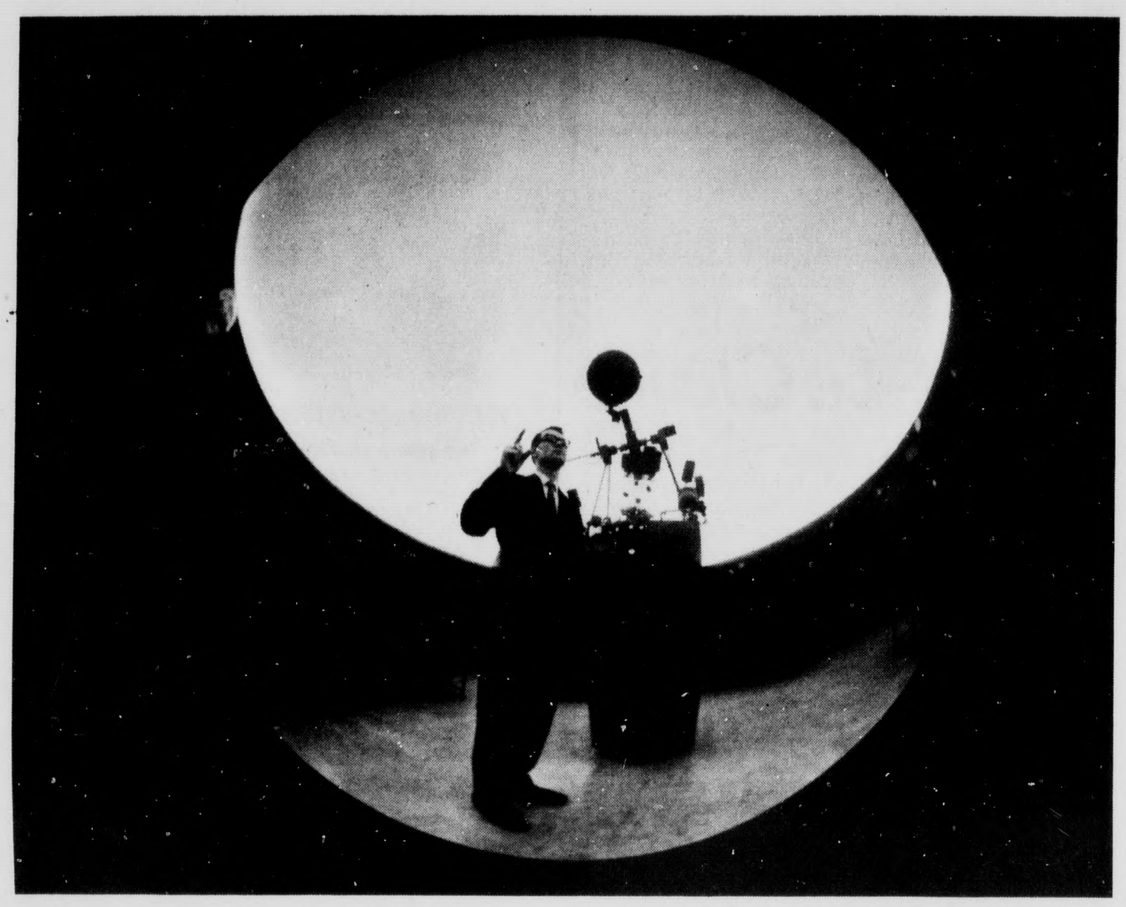
Mythology, star names, the life history of the stars, and a peek at some of the beautiful star clusters and gas clouds visible along the Milky Way are some of the highlights of the earlier show.

The Chabot planetarium is used as a training ground for planetarium education students as well as for community entertainment. A continuing program of shows is offered year - round, all free.

Although the reproduction of a starry sky under the big dome is a magical experience for young and old, children under five are not admitted because they don't have the attention span to sit through a show However, school groups may tour the facility and enjoy a 15 - minute production especially for them (arrangements must be made in advance.)

Reservations for all the shows are recommended and may be made by calling 782 - 3000, extension 415 or 417, during business hours weekdays, 8 - noon Saturdays.

From the Valley, Chabot may be reached via Route 580 to 17; take the Hesperian Boulevard exit; go right on Hesperian and inue for veral miles to the college at 25555 Hesperian, Hayward.



Chabot planetarium director Dr. Billy Smith explains the mysteries of the starry sky.

Talks continue

Alameda County Bureau

OAKLAND — County officials and union leaders are continuing their talks in an attempt to end the 42 - day - old service employes walkout.

State conciliator John McCarthy, personally handling talks in the imbroglio, said there's been "an awful lot of progress in the last couple of days."

The two sides began marathon negotiations Saturday morning in Berkeley's Hotel Claremont. More talks were held Sunday and again yesterday.

The sessions have been closed to the press and public with both sides refusing to issue statements. Only McCarthy is authorized to talk to the press.

He said more than 50 issues have been resolved in the talks. Wages, however, still are the chief hurdle to a settlement.

The striking Service Employes International Union had been demanding a 7.6 per cent pay and fringe benefits package that county supervisors countered with a 4.2 per cent offer.

Union negotiators last week offered a compromise 6 per cent pay package that apparently brought on the negotiating sessions.

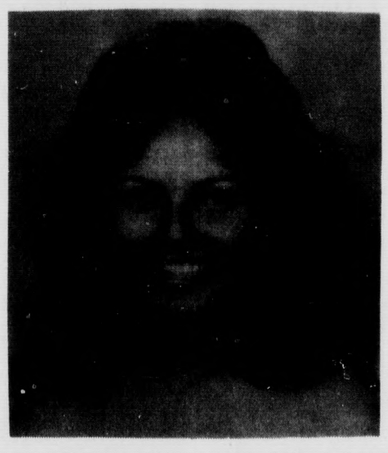
They'll travel miles on their beautiful smiles

The Livermore Valley will be beautifully represented by Deena Kendricks and Tammy Rankin at international competition in two related 'Cinderella' contests at Dallas, Tex. Deena is second runner-up state Little Cinderella Miniature Miss, while Tammy is Little California Cinderella Tot.



Susie Delgado of Livermore is California's Cinderella Girl.

Heading for Chicago to represent the state of California will be Michelle Robert of Livermore who will compete with winners from each of the 50 states for a scholarship as well as the title of Little Miss USA Talent.

In another contest four - year - old Tammy Rankin of Livermore will travel to Dallas as the California representative in the search for Little World Cinderella Tot July 25 through 31. Jazz acrobat Deena Kendrick, 9, of Livermore, is hoping to participate in the Dallas contest for the world title of Little Cinderella Miniature Miss, while eighteen-year-old Susie Delgado of Livermore vies for the crown of International Cinderella Girl.

While attending the competition at the Los Angeles Hilton for the title she now holds, Little Miss California Talent 1976, Michelle performed a bicentennial acrobatic routine which drew a standing ovation from the spectators. Talent in this contest constitutes 75 per cent in the judges decision, while poise, personality and beauty make up the remaining 25 per cent. Contestants also are personally interviewed, and do some modeling.

An "A" student at St. Michael's School in Livermore, Michelle has also studied with Carol Jean Dance Studio since age two. She has performed for seven years and captured may awards including the recent Northern California Counties Sweepstakes.

Michelle is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice O. Robert. Her sponsors were Burton's Shoes and the Livermore Valley Square Merchants' Association.

Tammy Rankin is no newcomer to the beauty pageant scene, having captured a string of titles since she was 10 months old, including Alameda County Beauty Princess and Little Miss Newark. She became Little California Cinderella Tot from a field of three- to six-year-olds for her beauty, poise, modeling ability, general aptitude and performance in personal interview with the judges.

She has already earned a $500 college scholarship, and is now eligible for a $1,000 scholarship and modeling contract to be awarded at Dallas. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Rankin, are seeking sponsors to help with transportation and lodging expenses at that "international" contest.

Deena Kendrick is also a student at the Carol Jean Dance Studio, and came in second runner-up in the Cinderella Miniature Miss state competition with her jazz acrobatic act. She is eligible to compete for the world title, based mainly on talent. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kendrick, will enter Deena in the Dallas competition July 25 through July 31 if they can find sponsors to help with expenses.

Susie Delgado, who will participate in the related "Cinderella" pageant for girls 18 to 26 years of age, will represent California in a December contest at Dallas. Susie, a graduate of Livermore High School, will sing and dance for the world crown at Dallas which carries a college scholarship and complete wardrobe as prizes.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Delgado, Susie was second runner-up in the Maid of Livermore Pageant. Her sister, Joyce, 17, also was declared a talent winner in the Cinderella Girl state pageant.

Families needed for students

Twenty-five host families are needed for Japanese students coming to the valley July 31 to August 15.

Sharon Lee of Interstudy - Homestay says the students, ages 16 to 23, will attend special classes in English conversation and American culture at Dublin High School, Shannon Community Center and St. Isadore's Church in Danville.

The students are fully insured. Host families will be asked to provide board and lodging.

Middle income and minority families are especially being sought as hosts for the Japanese students. Also, Mrs. Lee says that a wide range of cultural experiences are being sought for the visiting students. Anyone who would like to invite the students, for example, to witness a wedding, a shower, court proceedings or business operations may contact Mrs. Lee at 828-6620, or Tanya Clark, 828-2338, or May Hernandez, 828-6616.

Students will be in class from 9 to 12 Monday through Friday during their stay in the valley.

A steer in sheep's clothing?—It's a first

Have you ever seen a 1,100-pound steer dressed as a sheep? Or as a bumblebee ... or hula dancer?

FFA and 4-H youngsters joined together in "just for fun" competition at the County Fair in two classes, costume class for beef and costume class for sheep. Both owners and animals were costumed and the results were hilarious!

Judged on originality and completeness, six winners were picked in each class. The event was organized by Marie Hansen of Castro Valley and Melinda Robles of Pleasanton.

Judges were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Slagle of Sacramento. Awards were supplied by Albers Feed of Pleasanton and the Livermore Locker and ribbons presented by Pat Lund of Pleasanton, president of the Alameda County Cowbelles.

Costume class for beef:

First, Susan Pomin of Livermore FFA with a steer dressed in a Bicentennial theme; Second, Scott Downing of Pleasanton FFA with a steer dressed as one of the event's chairwomen; Third, Stacy Walker, with a steer dressed as a sheep; Fourth, Jim Goss, with a steer dressed as a cow.

Costume class for sheep:

First, Nancy Calhoun and Kim Bonde of Livermore FFA with sheep dressed as bridge and groom; Second, Jan Morris of Abby 4-H of Pleasanton with a sheep dressed as a race horse; Third, Harry Papazian, sheep dressed as a scarecrow; Fourth, Shawn Silva, sheep dressed as a football player.

Brian Cook of Crane Ridge 4-H received $2.35 a pound for his 4-H reserve champion swine, as purchased by Jean (right) and Robert Ghera.

Japanese group due

Four more families in either Pleasanton, Dublin, San Ramon or Livermore are needed for a group of Japanese students coming to Dublin High School July 25.

Needed are four families who would be able to host one of four Japanese girlswhose ages are 17, 19, 21 and 22. They will be in the valley from July 25 to August 19.

Sponsored by Homestay, the students, ages 16 to 23, will attend English conversation classes at Dublin High School. Transportation to and from the valley will be taken care of by the sponsoring group.

Families will be asked to provide housing and meals for the Japanese students, who will be here specifically to improve their English language skills and learn more about American culture.

Those who can host one of the four students should contact Barbara Heimowitz as soon as possible at 537-2066.

Crystal Galvan, right, had the grand champion lamb at the just-completed Alameda County Fair. At the annual livestock auction Sunday, the lamb was purchased by Larry Dutra, center, for $7-a-pound. All of the winning animals and successful bids are listed at upper right of this page.

"It's not heated!"

For Tuesday, July 13, 1976

ARIES (March 21-April 19) You tend to expect more today than conditions warrant. Building unrealistic hopes is foolish. View things with a jaundiced eye.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) Don't rely solely on Lady Luck and your good looks to get you by today. You'll have to work for any rewards.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) Don't let hunches or intuition take precedence over logic today. If it doesn't compute in your mind, chances are it won't work.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) Normally you can't be mistaken where bargains are concerned. Today, you may be taken in by the glitter and overlook the value.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) Friends are prone to tall you what you'd like to hear today rather than give you a frank opinion. Bear this in mind.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Stick to your sensible health habits today. The temptation to overindulge will be strong. You'll stray without rigid self-discipline.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) It could prove costly on a risky financial expenditure to take the word of someone who tends to exaggerate.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) Look for ways to trim the family budget today. Remember, it's not made of rubber and has limits to its elasticity.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) You're liable to make some lavish promises today in order to get others to do things. Remember, if they produce you'll have to pay.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) There is a strong possibility you won't make the best of your opportunities today, especially if they happen to be material ones.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) Important matters must be guided by your own hand today. Otherwise, the results won't be what you desire.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) Be businesslike, but fair, today. Don't leave it up to someone else to determine the size of your piece of the action.

East and West have most of the high cards, but North and South have the spade suit and better distribution.

East and West can make four hearts while North and South can make four spades. When the hand was played in a rubber bridge game the bidding went as shown in the box. East and West got after diamonds in time to collect a diamond, two clubs and 100 points above the line, but North and South were very unhappy with the result.

North was mad because South had doubled five hearts. He explained that he would have let East play five hearts, but had to take it out when South doubled.

South was mad because he felt that North had tried to bid both their hands and had managed to get to the wrong contract all by himself.

We have to agree with South on all counts. North might have bid in such manner as to get doubled at four spades, but North had sledge-hammered his way right there.

South had heard all the bidding and decided that he was going to take three tricks against East. Hence his double.

Ask the Jacobys

A Connecticut reader wants to know the correct bid with: ♠ 7 ♥ 9 8 7 6 ♦ Q 8 5 3 ♣ A Q 10 5. The bidding was opened one heart to your left; your partner bid two hearts and third hand passed.

Assuming that you are playing a standard system that your partner has shown a very strong hand you should bid three diamonds with every intention of making some further bid.

Livermore 10th in NC

PLEASANT HILL — The Livermore Aquacowboys splashed to a tenth-place finish while San Ramon High School sophomore Davitt Cunningham, competing for the Pleasant Hill Swim Club, set two Pacific Association age group records at the NorCal Senior Invitational Swim Meet at Diablo Valley College here over the weekend.

Livermore amassed 193 points, due to strong showings in the relay events to end among the leaders. Mission Viejo's powerful Natadores claimed first with 918 points.

The 14-year old Cunningham set his first record while finishing sixth in the 200-meter backstroke in a time of 2:15.322. He returned for another mark, swimming the 200-meter freestyle in 2:01.117, good for ninth in the consolation heat.

The Wolf underclassman also took third in the 200-meter butterfly consolation heat with a 2:14.110 clocking and joined team mates Fred Ehmke, Steve Breiter and Matt Shieman for a fourth place in the 400-meter freestyle relay at 3:42.967.

Although the team of junior college All-American Jim Turnbull, Paul Lohman, Greg Heras and Mike Kurtzer captured 13th in the 400 free relay, it was the Aquacowboy women's contingent that shone brightest.

The quartet of Michelle Aubuchon, formerly with the NorCal Aquatics of San Ramon, Kris Franklin, Jackie Ellis and Patti Daley took a fifth in the 800-meter freestyle relay (8:59) and an eighth in the 400 free relay (4:14.717).

Franklin also placed in two individual events while Ellis and Daley managed one apperance each in the finals. Kris took 11th in the marathon 1500-meter freestyle (18:03.405) and 10th in the 200-meter freestyle consolation heat (2:13.115).

Ellis finished 18th in the 1500-meter free (18:20.195) while Daley touched eighth in the 200-meter butterfly consolation heat (2:31.2).

Two other local swimmers fared well on the meet's final two days.

Fifteen-year old Amador Valley High School student Katie Fleischer took fifth in the championship heat of the 100-meter freestyle with a 1:06.823 clocking, seven-tenths of a second back of the winner, unattached Karen Hillen.

She also contributed to the Pleasant Hill Swim Club's fourth place in the 800-meter freestyle relay (8:56.1) and its fifth in the 400 free relay (4:11.88.

Dijos perfect in Pleasanton romp

ALAMO —Robin Dijos walloped two doubles and two singles in four trips to the plate last night as Pleasanton National Senior League's all-stars opened District 57 play with a convincing 8-1 win over Dublin at Monte Vista High.

Southpaw Jim Ford fanned 11 batters while walking none in going the distance to pick up the win for Pleasanton.

Both teams entered the game as possible favorites for the District 57 title, as Dublin's Filper Corporation Braves had just one week earlier won the District 57 Senior League Tournament of Champions. Pleasanton's Phillies made it to the semi-finals of the TOC. Both all-star teams were well-stacked with players from those championship teams.

Pleasanton had Pleasanton made an early threat in the first inning, as Dijos rapped the first of his two doubles with one out and Tim Bordley at first on a walk. But Bordley was thrown out at the plate trying to score on the hit. Doug Stevenson popped out to end the inning.

Bret Bevilacqua led off the winners' third inning with a walk, and Ken Northam did likewise. After Mike Bowling bunted the runners along, Bob Umland laced a single to score Bevilacqua. Ford flied to right for out number two, but losing hurler Joey Roposa uncorked a wild pitch to score Northam with the team's second run.

In the third, Dijos led off with his second double.He stayed at second while Stevenson fanned and Bevilacqua grounded out. But Ken Northam stood up at the plate and hit a two-strike pitch over the left-center field fence, driving in two runs and making it 4-0 Pleasanton.

Pleasanton's four-run fourth inning outburst initiated when Umland reached base on an error. Ford popped out, but John Pappas singled and Bordley walked to load the bags.

Dijos lifted a fly to deep-center that eluded Dublin's Mike Harmon and fell in for a safety, scoring Umland. Dublin coach Frank Colairo then pulled Roposa in favor of Jeff Bynum, who promptly fanned Stevenson for out number two. Bret Bevilacqua then laced a double up the alley in left-center field, clearing the bags and making it 8-0. Bevilacqua was thrown out trying to stretch the hit into a triple.

From that point on, Bynum pitched scoreless baseball, while Dublin picked up a run in the bottom of the fourth.

Dan Pearson doubled to lead off the inning and likewise got the losers' first hit of the game. Mike Colairo's gorund out sent Pearson to third, where he scored on a sacrifice fly to center by Bynum, helping his own cause.

Dublin threatened in both the sixth and seventh innings, but failed to put a marker across the board.

In the sixth, Colairo and Bynum each reached on consecutive errors by shortstop Stevenson, but Ford fanned Ralph Johnson, Pearson and Rick Rosenbach to get out of trouble.

Derrick Woolridge and Doug Daugherty each singled for the losers to lead off the seventh, but Greg Bustamante forced Woolridge at third, George Garrett flied to left and Johnson forced Bustamante at second to end the game.

Pleasanton advances to second-round action tonight at Memorial High School in Fremont. They play Mission San Jose, who drew a first-round bye, at 5:45.

Dublin, meanwhile, drops into the losers bracket and face a long uphill battle. They face the loser of the Fremont AmericanSan Ramon/Danville game at Newark High School tonight at 5:45.

Swailes four-hits Pleasanton stars, 6-0

Brian Swailes hurled a four-hitter, all of the hits harmless singles, as Livermore National shutout Pleasanton American 6-0 last night in District 57 Senior League all-stars action at Hopyard Sports Park in Pleasanton.

Swailes struck out six and walked four and was tough when he had to be. In the sixth inning, Pleasanton mounted their only challenge when they had runners on first and third with none out following a walk and Greg Kragen's bunt single.

Swailes found his concentration, however, and fanned the next three batters all on curve balls.

Livermore turned in excellent defense at the hands of slick-fielding shortstop Ron Smith and third - baseman Roger Bowers, both of whom consistently made the tough plays, and right - fielder Jeff Jones, who picked up what looked to be a base-hit and threw the runner out at first base.

The game was a 1-0 pitcher's duel until Livermore erupted for five runs in the fifth inning. Smith, showing that he could also handle a bat, doubled to left - center and Jeff Jones struck out but reached first when the ball got by the catcher.

First - baseman Dean Mendez then hit an opposite field double, scoring two runs. After two more walks, Roger Bowers belted a three-run home run to deep left - center field, which helped Swailes coast to victory.

Livermore National advances to second - round action tonight at Monte Vista High School in Alamo. They play the winner of last night's Newark National - Centerville game at 5:45.

Pleasanton American, meanwhile, goes into the losers bracket and must win every game to stay alive. They will play at Centerville National's field at 5:45.

Dons lose first

SAN LEANDRO — The Purple are blue after last night.

The Pleasanton Dons summer basketball team lost its first game in 12 starts last night, finally losing to the Hayward Mariners, 43-35, at the Boys' Club here.

Curly - headed Randy Smith led the way with 12 points for the winners while star pivotman Jim Goudreau had six before fouling out early in the fourth quarter. Bobby Beville also scored six.

For Pleasanton, Mike Hansen tallied a less - than - gluttonous seven for the best the Dons could do against the Mariners "No Hoop Troop." Chris DePrater added six, Don Hall four and Rick Maynard four.

A Smith bucket from underneath gave Hayward a 32-30 advantage heading into the final quarter but Pleasanton led as late as 7:20 to play as free throws by Chris Kearns and Chuck Gilliam put the Dons up, 33-32.

But just two DePrater foul shots in the final minute remained for the Dons as Ray Pena and John Richman led a 9-0 Mariner binge that iced the contest.

Fatherless Cubs lose

SAN FRANCISCO— Playing without a manager and still missing ex-major leaguer Ken Walters, the Tri-Valley Cubs played Oakland's Ravens even for eight innings yesterday at San Francisco's Funston Field.

When the game ended, though, the Ravens came out on top of a 5-0 score, despite brilliant pitching from Steve Vaccaro and three hits from Carl Speck.

Oakland scored all five of their runs in the fifth inning, none of them earned. In going down to their fifth league defeat in eight tries, the Cubs managed to play defense in all but the fifth inning, where three big errors did them in.

"That's what killed us," said "acting" manager John McGue, who plays first base for the Cubs and who also was thrown out of the game after a melee with the first base umpire. McGue really meant the umpiring killed the Cubs. In the Ravens' big inning, Tri-Valley had a couple of Oaklanders in a rundown, yet failed to get either one out, not without help from the men in the blue.

Ron Mingo, the "world's fastest typist", but known to Cub players as the "world's fastest mouth", led off the Oakland fifth by striking out. Don Miles got on base after an error by shortstop Jim Florence, and Billy Williams, Jr., singled.

Larry Wood flied to left field in what would have been out number three, with Miles and Williams holding their ground. Mike Price then reached safely on an error by first-baseman McGue. The two-base error scored both runners, giving Oakland all the runs they would need for the day.

Ken Robinson kept the rally going by lashing his second single of the day. Raven player - manager Billy Williams, Sr., followed with a base hit to load the bags Billy Johnson then lashed a Vaccaro offering into centerfield, scoring Price and Robinson. The ball got by Dave Manousos, allowing Williams to score, making it 5-0. Johnson was thrown out at the plate for the fifth out of the inning.

Despite the loss, Tri-valley played spirited ball, due mainly to the effectiveness of Vaccaro. The last time the Cubs played the Ravens at this same park, Oakland jumped on Vaccaro and a number of other hurlers for a 13-8 win.

"He couldn't find the plate the last game, he was walking everybody," said coach John McCuaig. Yesterday Vaccaro allowed just six hits, the same as his counterpart Gerald Smith, and walked only two men. After the fifth inning, he pitched no-hit baseball.

Unfortunately for the Cubs, Smith was much more imposing this time around. The tall Raven pitcher had his fastball humming all day, while effectively mixing his pitches.

Next Saturday, the Cubs will play their first home game of the season at Dublin High. The San Francisco Hawks, a group of Japanese players, will take them on in an exhibition doubleheader starting at 10:00.

"Watch out! You're doing it wrong."

The Shell Answer Man

Q. What's the first thing to do if my car breaks down?

A. Get it out of the way, and if possible, off the road. Get yourself out of danger's way, too. That sounds elementary, but too many drivers stop right in the middle of the road when they needn't. And they take chances when they shouldn't.

Q. What could I carry in my car that would really help in emergencies?

A. A working flashlight, a simple set of basic tools, warning flares or reflectors, a lug wrench, and a jack. A fire extinguisher is also a good idea.

Interested in a free copy? You can get one now. Just write to the Shell Oil Company, P.O. Box 61609, Houston, Texas 77208.
